Cotton Queen To Be Crowned At Fair

Birmingham—The selection of King Cotton's royal queen will be a highlight of the annual Alabama State Fair which opens at Birmingham, September 13.

Alabama's Maid of Cotton for 1958 will be crowned on Thursday night of Fair week in a glittering ceremony in front of the main grandstand.

Miss Sandra Joy Kelley of Huntsville, the reigning Alabama Maid will crown her successor from among the lovely young ladies who have been perpetrators of the coffee at the table.

A. Yes, this is all right. But after that one little "taste-test," the spoon should be placed in the saucer and left there.

Q. Is it proper for a young woman to sign a business letter as Miss Margaret Benton?

A. Yes, but the "Miss" should be enclosed in parentheses.

Q. Is it proper to send formal invitations to christening?

A. No, because only the family and the very few intimate friends are supposed to be invited.

Q. What is the proper order of recession of the end of a wedding ceremony in the church?

A. Just the reverse of the entrance of the wedding party. The bride and groom, followed by the bridesmaids and ushers.

Q. When applause is given with pork, should it be eaten with a spoon or fork?

A. It is better to use the fork. Q. What form should a new-laid couple use when accepting invitations to a reception, after they have returned from their honeymoon?

A. They may either mail the engraved kind of invitation, or if the affair is to be informal one, they may telephone their invitations.

Q. Is it considered proper to use a spoon to test the chosen to represent their counties at the annual affair.

The 1957 commercial apple crop is estimated at 115.6 million bushels, 15 percent above 1956 and five above the average.

During the past fiscal year, farmers borrowed $356.3 million from the Farmers Home Administration. About 51 percent of the loans were used to pay operating costs, 30 percent for purchase and improvement of real estate, and 19 percent for emergency expenses.

Council Votes Money For Record School Enrollment

2-CENT GAS TAX SET ASIDE FOR SCHOOL FUNDS

Elba City Schools got underway this week for the 1957-58 school year with a record enrollment, overcrowded school buildings, and a 2-cent gas tax set aside for school funds.

A Favorable Community Climate
The Fall Festival deserves the wholehearted support in every way possible by every person interested in the progress of Elba.

The benefits it can accomplish can be summed up in a single sentence:
If Elba Festival can be developed what bankers call a "favorable community climate."

Too many people still think of business in cold terms of cash alone.
Bankers know that a community with a progressive spirit constitutes a better financial risk than one which is stagnant.

A feature story in last Sunday's issue of The Birmingham News told how Rochester, N. Y., has far outdistanced any other medium-sized American city. One paragraph in that story tells why in the following words:
"For years Rochester, seat of the huge Eastman Kodak Co., has boasted what business bankers call a 'favorable community climate.'" world that should prove vastly exciting to such a soft spoken young girl.

The Fall Festival by spotlighting the past progress of Elba, can build a community spirit which can do more than anything else to contribute to Elba's future progress.

BIRTHDAYS are usually pleasant occasions and the birthday of Mrs. John Griffin, Sr., of Enterprise, was made even more so by the surprise dinner given her by her family.

On Friday, September 6th, the Griffin home was the setting for much happiness and family fun. Gathered together were the Max Warrens, Sr., Miss Jean Warren, Mrs. Florence Kemney, the John Griffins' Jr., and their children, the A. L. Fanks, Jr., of Samson, and the Leroy Millers of Elba.

A MOST ATTRACTIVE NEWCOMER to Elba is Pat Williams, who, with her husband and young son, has moved to "the Green House", on the Kingston Road. Pat can be seen almost any pretty afternoon out sunning her baby, making a nice tableau for passers-by.

A LAST WEEKEND in Florida, the Griffin home was the setting for much happiness and family fun. Gathered together were the Max Warrens, Sr., Miss Jean Warren, Mrs. Florence Kemney, the John Griffins' Jr., and their children, the A. L. Fanks, Jr., of Samson, and the Leroy Millers of Elba.

da before fall sets in was enjoyed by Peggy and James DeVane and Gladys Clark, who were the guests of John Garrett at his beach home at Sunnyvale. Peggy said the best thing about the whole trip was "just relaxing".

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS to a cute little girl were extended last week when Elaine Miller was honored with a picture show party. All the youngsters enjoyed the movie and the exceptionally pretty cake that was cut afterwards.

ENJOYED chatting with vivacious Sue Hall who told us that her sister was married to Evans Hartog, an ideal friend of ours from Troy. The Hartogs live in Florida now, where he is handmaster. Seems that Sue and her sister, just like musicians.

Sue was a guest at the bridge club held last Tuesday at Genette Kendrick's. Martha Martin, Olive Ray Martin, Rachel Cook, and Margaret Whitman were also guests, making a pleasant evening even more enjoyable.

OFF TO THE BIG CITY of Chicago are Dorothy Lindsey, and vivacious daughter, Debbie. The two will visit relatives and take in all the sights of the windy city.

GOOD NEWS to all of us is that Pat and "Van" Vanblarecum are to be stationed at Eglin Field for several years. The Lamar Rainers, Sr. will really enjoy having Pat and her family so near.

Solve-A-Crime

By A. C. Gordon

You are the Detective. "Will you please come at once? I've been robbed! All my lovely jewels! This is Mrs. Thomas L. Browning. I'm at Pauline's Beauty Salon, 132 Eighth Avenue."

You drive to the address given to you by the well-known society woman where you find her pacing nervously back and forth in the reception room of the salon. "The most terrifying experience I've ever had!" she exclaims. "In broad daylight, too, and he stripped me of all my jewels."

"I understand how upset you must be," you say, but I hope you will bear with me while I ask you a few questions." As she nods assent, you notice the broken nails on two of the fingers of her otherwise beautifully cared-for hands.

"Now," you begin, "just when where and how did all this happen?"

"It was about 2:30. I had just finished having my hair dressed, and was standing outside for my chauffeur, when a man came up close to me, asked me for the time, before I could answer, he pushed the pocket of his coat against my side and demanded my money and jewels. I looked quickly all around, but what few people there were on the street weren't paying us a bit of attention, and I was too frightened to scream. Besides, he warned me to keep my mouth shut."

"And then, did you immediately give up your valuables, or did he take them?"

"Why, I just handed them over. I was—"

"Just what did he take?" you interrupt.

"Well, there were two diamond bracelets, an emerald pendant, two emerald earrings, a diamond tiara, about $100 in cash, and three diamond rings."

"What did the man look like?"

"I was too nervous to look at him very closely. I do know he wore a grey felt hat which was pulled down over his eyes, that he wore a gray sport jacket, no tie, and that he had a very harsh, unpleasant-sounding voice."

After a few minutes of thought, you look at Mrs. Browning and say, "There's one little loophole in this case, as you've stated it, which makes me suspicious of your story. And your

Kilpinger Says No Depression, Sees Gradual Growth Then Boom in 60's

Washington, D. C.—Current fears of a series recession are not warranted, according to a special report by the Kilpinger organization, released today. A prayer of "normal" progress for the next five or six years is predicted by the Washington business reporting firm. Any lull or slump will be temporary, the editors say, a pause, not a deep slump or depression.

Then in five or six years, a new boom will set off "the greatest era of economic growth this country has ever known." Underlying the new boom are these facts:

Population: Extra high birth rates in the 40's and 50's will produce a population bulge in the 20's and 30's of young men and women marrying or ready to marry. Marriages make homes, homes make business.

New products, new ideas: Technical, scientific and technical developments of the past few years are being rushed into use, producing a crop of new products.

Government policy: Both parties and all political groups are bullish, committed to full employment and an economy going at full speed, with the government an active partner.

More Inflation: The bad news is that more inflation will accompany the boom, according to the Kilpinger report. Prices will go higher, in ten years, 15 per cent higher, in 25 years, 50 per cent higher.

Behind the inflation are three major forces, pushing hard:

Wages rising faster than productivity; A continuous push for higher wages can be expected, causing higher prices and then demand for more insurance company will think the same, too."

What makes you think Mrs. Browning has "framed" the robbery of her valuables?

Solution: You have never heard of or seen a woman wearing a diamond in the middle of the afternoon!

Lower income groups will decrease in number, as families move up the income scale, more middle and upper income families. And there will be increasing numbers of rich families.

Wages to cover increased living costs.

World-wide pressure on prices. Demand for goods everywhere else in the world is greater than the supply. Prices are going up in all countries and they affect our economy, too.

Government spending: No matter what men of either party say the pressure is to expand public spending, so deficits may plague budgets in the future. Public pressure continues in its wake.

Not all states and localities share equally in the growth of the next 25 years, the Kilpinger report points out. The biggest single area of growth is the "heartland" area from Pittsburgh to Chicago.

Next in growth comes the Atlantic seaboard, New York to Baltimore. Then spectacular California, heading toward beating New York as number one state in population. Then Texas, then Florida, which is gaining at the highest rate of any large state.

Business Gains Spotlighted: The new boom of the 60's will bring in housing, accompanied by further suburban growth, increased land prices, more luxury homes.

New businesses will increase. All the talk about small business being doomed is "a lot of bunk," according to the editors. Service lines will grow fast: retailing, repair, maintenance, banking, real estate, insurance, as well as recreation, travel and vacation-connected businesses.

No Tax Relief-Incomes Up: Along with the boom and inflation will come a steep rise in incomes, until family spending doubles its present level in the 30's. Even with discounts for inflation and higher prices, there will be more family spending.

Lower income groups will decrease in number, as families move up the income scale, more middle and upper income families. And there will be increasing numbers of rich families.

Farm News and Reports

WINTER COVER CROPS PROVIDE MANY BENEFITS

AUBURN—The ravages of winter weather often etch deep lines of erosion across the face of the land, not to mention the hidden scars from leaching. But Alabama farmers can prevent this "wintertime" destruction of their land by planting cover crops.

API Extension Agronomist J. C. Lowery emphasized this week that cover crops do even more than just protect the land. These crops improve the Soil.

Many growers have discovered that winter legumes increase their cotton and corn yields, more than paying for the time and money spent in putting in the legumes. These cover plants do not interfere with other crops, coming at a time when farm work slows down. They are turned under to add plant food, especially nitrogen to the soil during the winter period in the spring. And winter legumes often furnish good grazing for livestock.

Annual winter legume crops include vetch, Austrian winter peas, hairy vetch, crimson clover, bur clover, and lupine. Re-seeding legumes are crimson clover, bur clover, and lupine.

For further information on winter cover crops, any county agent for API Extension Circular 327, "Winter Cover for Your Land."

STATE IN GOOD SPOT TO GROW BEEF PROFITS

AUBURN—Just how far Alabama is leading to increased yields in beef production is being pointed out by the state's beef producers. They say the state is in a good spot to grow beef profits.

AFTER-SCHOOL "IM HUNGRY" SNACK ANSWERS

AUBURN—The schoolbells ring as children pour out of the classrooms and into school buses. And just a little later in hundreds of homes the same question is heard, "I'm hungry! What's there to eat?"

Here, once again, mothers run smack the old problem mothers have faced for generations. What can they put into after-school snacks that will satisfy a hungry child and yet not spoil his appetite for the evening meal?

For these puzzled mothers, API Extension Foods Specialist Mary Hulsey has some suggestions this week. She recommends snacks composed of a milk drink with fresh fruit or crackers or plain cookies, or fruit juices with crackers, or plain cookies. These light snacks are refreshing and nourishing and are guaranteed not to spoil any meal if eaten in moderate quantities.

Miss Hulsey warned mothers not to take the easy way out and let children raid the icebox, picking out the leftovers from the noon meal. Children who do this will almost always spoil their appetites for supper. And she also cautioned mothers to revise family routines and move the night meal up an hour or so. With the days getting a little shorter all the time, this early supper hour does not prove as inconvenient for other family members as it might in other seasons. And best of all, the early meal will prevent the children from snatching their appetites and allow them to eat a hearty meal full of the nourishing whole-some food their bodies need.

If light, after-school snacks do not satisfy the children, then Miss Hulsey advises mothers to revise family routines and move the night meal up an hour or so. ## Tigers Turn From Lopsided Loss to Tough Foe In Opp

The Elba High Tigers journeyed to Opp tomorrow night to face another tough foe following a 19-0 shellacking here last Friday from Laverne.

The Tigers face a tough uphill battle tomorrow in a team which has all but one of last year's team in the line-up while the Tigers have lost 13 men in last year's squad.

Doing the damage for the visitors here last Friday were Quarterback Dick Woody and Left Half Al Hargrove. Woody threw good on a 57-yard run and right end late in the game. Quarterback Woody was named MVP in the third quarter from the 2-yard line. Hargrove added the third touchdown in the last quarter on a run from the 10.

The Laverne attack made yardage consistently while leading the home team to small gains. Elba's passing department looked fairly good, throwing 30 yards. Quarterback Carl Nelson threw 5 passes, completing 2. Substitute quarterback Lionel Shipp threw only 1 pass which was incomplete.

The starting lineup for the Tigers was:

Defensive standouts for the home squad were Billy Joe Brunson, Ricky Boswell, and Harvey Griffin. The Tiger defense just never got good and started.

ONE-TIME ELBA CHILD DIES IN LOOP OF ROPE

Little Joe Young, aged 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perrell D. Young, formerly of Elba, died of strangulation Tuesday, Sept. 17, in Pensacola, when he slipped from a ladder he was climbing and fell into the loop of a rope.

The tragic accident occurred in the garage behind his home and his body was found by his brother, Samuel, aged 10, when he went into the garage to put away his bicycle.

Formerly of Elba, the family lived in Elba until their removal to Pensacola about seven years ago. Both Mr. and Mrs. Young are graduates of Elba High. Young was the former Ruth Smith, and their children were born here. Both Mr. and Mrs. Young are employed at the Naval Air Station in Pensacola.

Little Joe had arrived home from school about 1 p.m., and as he was about to go to his room, he was called by his mother, who telephoned his mother at the Air Station. He was in high spirits because he told her he had just made a good grade in his first test at school.

Apparently then he went into the garage to play or get something or to untie the rope that was attached to the ladder. Apparently he propped the ladder against the rafter and began climbing with the free end of the rope either in his hand or coiled loosely about his body.

Midway up the ladder a rung slipped plugging the boy downward and entangling him in the rope which slipped into a noose about his neck. It was thus that his brother Samuel found him. The ladder lay on the floor where it fell.

Calls Help

Samuel, using his Boy Scout knife, cut Joe down at once and summoned help. He was taken to Baptist Hospital where he was pronounced dead by strangulation.

Besides his parents and brother he is survived by his grandmother, Mrs. Joseph T. Young of Elba.

Funeral services and burial were in Pensacola.

No One Seriously Hurt in Collision

A head-on automobile crash near the intersection of Troy highway and Brantley road last Thursday about 6:30 p.m. looked serious at the time but the seriousness lessened as the days passed.

Giles Bryant, of Troy highway, driver of a pick-up truck traveling north, crashed head-on with an automobile driven by Mrs. Dock Padgett, of Elba, traveling south. Bryant appeared to be seriously hurt and rushed by ambulance to Gibson Hospital in Enterprise. Attending physicians yesterday described his continued stay in the hospital as due to an inflammation of the pancreas and said he had no injuries from the wreck.

Mrs. Padgett, suffered fractures. Mr. Padgett was uninjured. Police Chief Bow Dunaway, who investigated, said Bryant was on the left side of the street when the crash occurred.
